

VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

Volunteer Philosophy

The Multicultural Center encourages the collaboration of employees and volunteers so that we can share the experience of service and investment in a healthy and culturally vibrant community. We greatly appreciate the time and expertise of our volunteers and believe they are a vital part of our mission and prosperity.

Liability, Confidentiality & Screening

Help us safeguard our organization and our clients. By agreeing to volunteer, you are subject to MVMC's Liability, Confidentiality, and Screening policies located on the Volunteer Application, website, and sign-in/out log. If you need a copy, please ask for one before beginning your volunteer service.

Safety & Special Accommodations

MVMC cares about your health and safety. Please discuss any special accommodations with a Staff Member and always exercise caution when performing your volunteer assignment. Use appropriate equipment and clothing when performing tasks that involve safety risks.

Record Your Service

MVMC keeps a record of all volunteer services. Please use the volunteer log or report your hours directly to a Staff Member.

Let Us Know

Communicate with any MVMC Staff member about questions, concerns, instructions, or changes in availability. We are here to help!
